

PRESS RELEASE

Further Expansion and Investment at Plymouth based Insurance Brokers

WPS hallam Insurance Brokers have strengthened their team with 4 significant appointments.

Stephen King who will be based out of Exeter specialises in Corporate and Commercial insurance and has spent most of his 30 year career working in the broking sector here in the South West. Stephen has particular expertise across the commercial sector with specialisms ranging from the professional services to manufacturing, healthcare, construction and advanced technologies.

Joining Stephen as a Senior Account Executive is Jerry Knight. Jerry is well known in the Cornish business community and will be based out of Truro. A Cornishman through and through Jerry has in excess of 20 years Commercial broking experience with particular core areas including transportation, hospitality and leisure facilities and professional industries.

Steve Harvey, Sales and Marketing Director at WPS hallam, commented "we are delighted to welcome both Steve and Jerry to the team. Both are extremely well known in the local business community and are focused to delivering an exceptional local broking and Risk Management service to businesses here in the South West and beyond. They are fully aware of the challenges that businesses now face and recognize that to be able to provide a local professional service will be of paramount importance going forward.

WPS hallam are one of the few remaining independent and British owned commercial Insurance Brokers in the South West and are uniquely placed with being able to provide a full placement facility to the UK insurance market coupled with direct access to Lloyds and London schemes. WPS hallam also provide exclusive services to their South West clients with the provision of Risk Management and one to one claims provision through their dedicated office in Plymouth.

The internal broking team has been further strengthened with the addition of Tricia Buick and Lisa Evans to their Commercial team. Tricia and Lisa bring a wealth of experience having been in the industry for many years and will look to provide service to clients both new and old on a day to day basis.
